

JOANN Releases Initial Corporate Responsibility Impact Report

Sep 29, 2022

HUDSON, Ohio, Sept. 29, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- JOANN [NASDAQ: JOAN], the nation's category leader in fabrics and sewing and one of the fastest-growing players in the arts and crafts space, today released its first Corporate Responsibility Impact report, after returning to the public markets in March 2021.

With a focus on Team Members, Love for the Planet, and Care for Communities, JOANN introduces its EVERGREEN strategy which is guiding the company to be the best corporate citizen possible. In the report, JOANN outlines its commitment to create a sustainable reality where all Team Members, Customers and Partners feel safe, empowered and motivated to live out the company's values.

"JOANN is committed to creating a great place to work for Team Members; to continuously improving our products and operations; and to giving back to the communities where we live and work," said Jason Wood, Director of Corporate Responsibility at JOANN. "We have a deep sense of responsibility to not only control our environmental impact, but to also enhance the positive economic, personal, and social impact we can have on the world."
